Does your home lighting make your guests feel welcome? LIVE BETTER Electrically

Lighting makes a big difference in your brand of hospitality—a well lighted home is just naturally more cheerful! Friends approaching your home feel your welcome at once when your doorway and driveway are cheerfully lighted. And once inside, a comfortable level of light makes them feel right at home. For overnight guests, a night light in the bedroom hallway is a wonderful convenience. Good light and hospitality are closely akin, just as darkness and gloom are. Here are three specific tips to make your guests feel welcome!

Entrance holds with overhead lights are more hospitable. Wraps are removed and hung in more convenient, more guests can glimpse in the hall mirror before entering the living room.

In rooms with overhead light, switches should be placed on the wall near the door. Grouping for colorfast light is very pleasing to guests—many thoughtful hosts prevent by leaving the light on.
